

ENGLISH – classic fiction, persuasive writing, blogs & reports – travel writing

BOOKS YOU MIGHT LIKE TO READ:

Focus book: We will continue to read The Ickabog by J K Rowling

GEOGRAPHY – Marvellous Maps – the children will explore the range of maps available to geographers and develop their understanding of the key features of maps.

ENRICHMENT

Go for a walk around your area – can you map out your journey? Provide a key for what you see.

Can you find some old photographs of Saffron Walden and compare them to our town today? What do you notice has changed?

SPRING TERM 1 (Year 5)

Finding Our Way

PSHE – Emotion maps, Healthy & Safer lifestyles, Citizenship

MUSIC – Ideas and feelings about music, rhythmic and melodic phrases

FRENCH – Sports, Likes and dislikes aimer, Build sentences using food, time and frequency

RE – Anti-Racist RE: What can be done to reduce racism? Can religion help?

PE- Netball and gymnastics

SCIENCE – Materials

- Compare and group together everyday materials on the basis of their properties
- Dissolving materials to form solutions
- Separation of mixtures
- Use evidence from tests to give reasons for the particular use of materials such as metal, wood and plastic
- Reversible and irreversible changes

COMPUTING

- image editing
- scratch

<https://scratch.mit.edu/parents>

ART

Express Yourself!

We will be looking at different ways to express our unique personalities, from the clothes we wear and the colours we choose. We will also look at the work of Chuck Close.